

Fred P. Banny is a husband, entrepreneur, transformational speaker, purpose coach and mentor.

Born in Monrovia, Liberia in the mid-80s, Fred spent his formative years in a war-torn nation where he witnessed carnage and civil unrest. Fred and his family, by the grace of God survived years of devastation during the civil wars in Liberia. In 2001, Fred immigrated to the United States to live with his father and further his education. In 2015, Fred married the love of his life and enjoys living an intentional life with his purpose-partner.

One of his greatest passion is the mentoring and development of young boys who become good men, good men who become good leaders and good leaders who become great nation-builders. As long as he can remember, Fred has always been a positive influence and a champion for growth in the lives of individuals within his reach of impact.

As a Life-builder & Catalyst, Fred believes that in spite of the challenges and adverse circumstances we experience in life; we all have been created to be an answer to the problems with our society. He encourages that we all should make it our life's mission to discover, develop and put into service for the betterment of humanity; every gift, talent and ability God has deposited within us.

Fred P. Banny is proof-positive that no matter where you start in life, with passion and guidance you can rise from the ashes of your past and ascend to a life of great purpose and impact.
