

Mrs. Alice M.D. Howard, a wife and mother of 3 beautiful children is a Social Change Practitioner. She is very passionate about sustainable development. She has worked in the field and has acquired both theoretical and practical experience.

Alice Howard is a graduate of the University of Liberia where she obtained her Bachelors in Business Administration. She holds a degree in Insurance & Risk management from the West African Insurance Institute, and obtained her Master's degree in International Development & Social Change from Clark University, Worcester, MA.

Mrs. Howard has served in several capacities with various organizations – including the United Nations Office for Project Services in Liberia, the National Insurance Corporation of Liberia, The Madison Insurance Company, Liberia, Brown University in Rhode Island, Bank of New York/Mellon, in Rhode Island, Plan International USA, Warrick, RI and currently works at the Washington Trust Company in Westerly, Rhode Island.