

David A Kemah is a native of Liberia and has been working in the Financial and Accounting Industry for more than 25 years. His professional career includes both public and private sector duties in Liberia and the United States. He has also conducted periodic audits in London, England, Hamburg, Germany, and Athens, Greece.

In Liberia, his career included a streak at Universal Insurance Company, Merdien Bank International, Liberia Water and Sewer Corporation (LWSC) and the Ministry of Finance. Amongst his accomplishment are: as Comptroller, he sourced funds to purchase LWSC current head office in Monrovia in the mid-ninety when the country was governed by five councilmen and a non-existing development agenda and a four year (1998 -2001) scandal free Cash Management Division when he served as Deputy Comptroller General, RL.

In the United States, David has served as, Manager for a Federal Government contractor contracted to perform the Funds Obligation Function of the Department of Health and Human Services, and as Auditor for the Maryland State Department of Education. Currently he performs the Internal Audit function of the Liberian Registry. On his own time he performs consultancy for his private CPA firm: Atlantic International Consultancy, LLC.

He holds a BBA from the University of Liberia, an MBA from the Nichols College in Dudley, Massachusetts. He is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and holds membership with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the Virginia Society of CPAs (VSCPAs) and the Maryland State Association of CPA (MSCPA).

David is a family man and very active in his church. He considers his membership on the Board of the SunRise Forever Inc. an opportunity to give back to Liberia what the country has offered him.
